

- Litigation in school districts, 114.
 Local history, 97.
 Lowell, Mass., excellent school of, 116.
 Lyceums, 81; State, meeting of, 83, 177.
 Management of Schools, by R. C. Waterson, 49.
 Mann, Hon. H., tribute to female teachers by, 15; on pronunciation, 77; on private schools, 79; co-operation of parents, 117.
 Manual for teachers, recommended in Penn., 193.
 Marcy, Gov., message of, respecting school libraries, 195.
 Marsh, Capen, Lyon & Webb's Com. school library, 174.
 Massachusetts, summary of school law, 156; Gov. Morton's message, 156; abstract of school returns, 157; Report of Board of Education, 173; Secretary of the Board, 174.
 Means and Ends by Miss Sedgwick, extracts from, 12, 39, 56, 128.
 Mechanics' Institute, 177.
 Method of instruction in Summer Schools, 189.
 Michigan, progress of Common Schools in, 19; system of public instruction, 168; extracts from report of Superintendent for 1839, 169.
 Monkeys, diseases of, on account of bad air, 74.
 Moral discipline, 107, 121.
 Music, in French public schools, 10; in Switzerland, 51; in schools, 90, 161.
 New Canaan, school in, 148.
 New Haven, Lancasterian school in, 116; new school house in.
 New London, County Commissioner for, 5; school meetings in, 67.
 Newtown Academy, influence of on teachers, 145.
 New York, Common Schools in 1838, 19; Gov. Message, 132; educational policy of, 132; condition of schools in 1838, 170; report of Superintendent, 170; school fund, 171; progress of 171; district school libraries recommended in, and established, 195-6.
 Normal Schools, benefit of, 9; in England, 17; plan of by Prof. Stowe, 61, 87; course of instruction in, 87; reasons for and against, 103; at Lexington, 99.
 North Carolina, school system of, 51.
 Norway, common schools in, 115.
 Oberlin, Memoirs of, 133, 151.
 Ohio, Gov. Shannon's message, 131; Superintendent of common schools report, 154.
 Oral instruction, 96, 113, 161.
 Orthography, 91.
 Page, D. P., Lectures by, 14.
 Parents, duties of to teachers, 41; co-operation of in improving schools, 7, 29, 38, 55, 61, 85, 86, 163; indifference of, 194.
 Paris, schools in, 51.
 Peers, B. O., quoted, 101.
 Pennsylvania, report of Superintendent in, 192; progress of education in, 193; condition of education in, 192, 193; common schools in, 18; report of Sup. of common schools, 189.
 Pestalozzi, 106.
 Philadelphia, public schools in, 19; high schools in, 19.
 Physical education, 53.
 Physicians and common schools, 149.
 Poor, education of in Ohio, 154.
 Popular education in England, 17.
 Porter, Gov., extract from annual message of, 116.
 Portersville new school house, 67.
 Practical exercises, 142, 184-5.
 Prayer recommended, 47.
 Primary branches first to be attended to, 48; neglect of, 160.
 Private schools, origin of, 79; influence of on common schools, 79, 152, 159, 161.
 Progress of society, 180.
 Pronunciation, 77.
 Prospectus of Conn. Common School Journal, 5.
 Prussia, late school report from, 51; referred to by Gen. Dix, 98.
 Public meetings of schools, 167.
 Public libraries, 176.
 Public schools, public blessings, 29.
 Punctuality, 123.
 Punishments in schools, 45; domestic rules respecting, 46; of children, 97.
 Read, what to and how, 12.
 Reading, Dunn on, 16; in the district school as it was, 75; by author of Confessions, 76; to be taught like music, 91; series of articles on, 124, 140; in Mass., 161.
 Reports of school committees, 162.
 Registers, 162; to be kept by teachers, 27.
 Rich and poor, 129.
 Salisbury, school meeting in, 68; Youth's library, 68, 148.
 School books, 68, 69, 160.
 School Committees, dignity of their office, 30.
 School Convention in Mass., 173.
 School districts, how established, 22; with not less than 40 children, 26; boundaries of, 26; powers of, 26; taxation in, 27; meeting how warned, 26; power of taxation for libraries.
 School houses, new, 45; care of by teachers, 43; old ones repaired, 37; the old, 59; in Portersville, 67; in New London, 67; by Dr. Humphrey, 73; in Newington, 147; in Ohio, 155; in Mass., 157-175; in New Haven, 155, 179; in Chelsea, 179.
 Schools, laws and acts concerning, in Conn., 21-28.
 School libraries, 114, 172, 175, 177.
 School meetings, notices of, 52.
 School master, dignity of, 17.
 School returns for 1839-40, 52, 149, 164.
 School society, how constituted, 23, powers of, 23, 26.
 School teachers, by whom examined, 27; qualification of, 28; must keep a Register, 27.
 Secondary schools, 145.
 Sedgwick, Miss, extracts from, 56, 128.
 Self-culture, 81.
 Seward, Gov., annual message of, 132; extracts from message of, 132; on female teachers, 168.
 Shannon, Gov., message of, 131.
 Sigourney, Mrs. L. H., essay of, read at State Convention, State Lyceum, 83; on the cultivation of the perception of the beautiful, 117.
 Silvio Pellico, noble sentiment of, 17.
 Singing, 51, 161.
 States, uses of, 78; in writing, 93, 182-3.
 Small children, appropriate methods of governing and teaching, 38.
 Small districts, 178, 162.
 South Carolina school system, 156.
 Spelling, by Dunn, 16; method of, in Borough road school, London, 16; in the district school as it was, 75; by author of Confessions, 76; by Mr. Mann, 109; in Mass., 164.
 Spiritual influence in schools, 47, 78, 143.
 Stowe, Calvin E., on Teachers' Seminaries, 61, 72, 87, 103; tribute to, 65.
 Studies, too many, 160.
 Supplication by the English Language, 12, 33.
 Summer, first, in school, 61.
 Summer schools, improvement of, 85, 167, 158; method of instruction in, 180.
 Switzerland, vocal music in, 51.
 Teacher and pupil, 137; teacher and parent, 138.
 Teachers' department, 172.
 Teacher's manual by Dunn.
 Teachers, moral and intellectual habits of, 47; qualifications of, 121; examination of, 67, 114, 158; want of well qualified, 158; provisions for their better qualification, 7; education of in Lafayette College, Penn., 19; in Hartford Grammar School, 52; in Hartford Female Seminary, 116; in Winsted Academy, 52; in New York, 172; in Penn., 193; frequent changes of, 162.
 Teaching, dignity of, 129.
 Tennessee, school system of, 19.
 Text books, 136.
 Tolland county school meetings, 49; Commissioner for, 5; town report of school visitors for 1839, 166.
 Truth, 146.
 Uneducated children in New York, 172.
 United States, education in, 192.
 Union districts, how formed, 27; powers of, 27; committee of, 28.
 Union of intellect and labor, 178.
 Utterance, power of, to be cultivated, 41.
 Vacations, 123.
 Ventilation of school houses, 37; method of doing, 37.
 Vermont, extract from Gov. message, 153.
 Virginia, education in, 131.
 Visible illustrations, 127.
 Visitors, school, how they can improve Winter schools, 69.
 Wadsworth, Gen. James, author of the library system, 11.
 Waldo, L. P., member of school board, 5 school meetings by, in Tolland county, 49.
 Wallace, Gov., message of, 192.
 Waterston, R. C., lectures by, extracts from, 47, 78.
 Wayland, President, extract from, 13.
 War and education, 191.
 Webster, Noah, appointed orator before Historical Society, 100; tribute to, 100; gifts by, 100.
 Wethersfield, Rocky Hill Society, 141; Newington Society, 147.
 Windham county, Commissioner for, 5; school meetings, 66; school books recommended in, 68.
 Winter schools, improvement of, 37, 53, 69, 65.
 Wisdom and knowledge, 189.
 Woman, value of books to, 191.
 Words often mispronounced, 77, 92, 111, 126.
 Working men, address of, 117.
 Worthington, 1st Society, 147.
 Wright, T. L., provision of, for the education of teachers in the Grammar School, Hartford, 52.
 Writing, 93; on slate, 93; in the district school as it was, 94; in Mass., 161.
 Young children, management of, 182.
 Young Men's Institute, Hartford, 81.

CONTENTS

Of the Second Annual Report of the Board of Commissioners.

Report of the Board, 197.

Report of the Secretary, 199.

Account of his proceedings.

I. Condition of the Common Schools in 1839-40, 200.

1. Evidence of improvement, 200.
2. School Societies, 201.
3. School Districts and number of children, 201.
4. Attendance, 203.
5. Non attendance, 204.
6. Length, 206.
7. Teachers, 206.
8. Course of instruction, studies, books, apparatus, methods, registers and reports to parents, 207.
9. School-houses, 209.
10. Union schools, 210.
11. High school, 210.
12. School Libraries, 210.
13. Examination of Teachers and Visitation of Schools, 210.
14. Co-operation of Parents, 211.
15. Support of Schools, 211.

II. Other Means of Popular Education, 214.

1. Colleges, &c., 214.
2. Private Schools, 214.
3. Libraries, Lectures, &c., 215.

III. Means and Plans of Improvement, 216.

1. The spread of information, 217.
2. Common School Libraries, 217.
3. Gradation of Schools, 217.
4. Education of Teachers, 218.

APPENDIX.

1. Abstract of School Returns, 219.
 - A. Specimen of Returns, respecting Summer and Winter Schools, 220.
 - B. Specimen of Winter Schools, 221.
 - C. " Cities and Manufacturing Districts, 223.
 - D. Specimen of Aggregate and Estimates for 1839-40, 223.
2. Books in use, and recommended by School Visitors, 224.
3. Reports of School Visitors, 224—Farmingington, 224; Coventry, 229; Woodbridge, 230; Westville, 230; New-Haven, 231; Cornwall, 238; Norwich, 239; Labanon, 239; Tolland, 239; Vernon, 240; Reading, 240; Kensington, 241; Norwalk, 244; Winsted, 244.

4. Education in other States and Countries.

UNITED STATES.

General view of common school education in, 247.
 Common school system of Maine, 247.
 Vermont, Massachusetts, New-York, &c., 248.

EUROPE.

Remarks, 248.

SCOTLAND.

Parochial schools, history of, 249.
 Present condition of, 250.
 Factory schools, 250.
 Sessional school, Edinburgh, 251.
 High school of Glasgow, 253.
 Glasgow educational society, 254.
 Model infant school, 255.
 Juvenile school, 256.
 Normal seminary, 257.
 Edinburgh school of arts, 257.
 Education of factory children, 258.

IRELAND.

Elementary education, 258.
 Agricultural school at Themplemoyle, 260.
 Dublin society, 261.

ENGLAND.

School of industry at Norwood, 262.
 Ealing, 263.
 Lindfield, 265.
 Gower's Walk school, London, 265.
 Brenton asylum, Hackney Wick, 266.
 Asylum in Island of Guernsey, 267.
 Warwick county asylum, 267.
 Infant school in Quaker st. London, 267.
 Model school of the home infant school society, 268.
 Schools of the British and National society, 268.
 Borough Road school, 268.
 Training establishment, 269.
 Visit to the Borough Road school, 269.
 Sunday schools, 271.
 Factory schools, 271.
 Adult schools, 271.
 Mechanic institutions, &c., 271.
 Ignorance and crime, 273.
 Defects of popular education in England, 273.
 Extracts from speeches in parliament in 1839, 274.
 Lord Brougham on national education, 275.
 Carlyle on the education of the people, 276.
 Wm. Dunn on present state of education, 276.

WALES.

State of education in, 227.

HOLLAND.

President Bache's Report on primary instruction in Holland, 277.

General organization, 277.

Primary school at the Hague, 278.

Primary normal school at Haarlem, 281.

G. Nicholls, Esq., on the education of the laboring classes of Holland, in 1838, 281.

Baron Cuvier's report on education in Holland, in 1811, 282.

first impressions of the primary schools, 282.

progress of improvement, 283.

Teachers, 283.

Subjects of study, 283.

Village schools, 284.

Burgher schools, 284.

Education of teachers, 284.

M. Cousin's report on the state of education in Holland, in 1836, 285.

M. Cousin's evening school at the Hague, 285.

Education of teachers, 285.

School inspection, 285.

Mutual or monitorial instruction, 285.

Music in schools, 286.

Schools of the poor at Amsterdam, 286.

Intermediate school at Leyden, 287.

Infant school at Rotterdam, 288.

School for juvenile offenders at Rotterdam, 288.

Observations on the history of the school law, 289.

Extracts from the school laws of the Batavian Republic, 290.

Extracts from regulations respecting primary schools, 290.

respecting examination of teachers, 290.

respecting school inspectors, 290.

Programme of examination of teachers, 291.

Regulations respecting the general order in the primary schools, 291.

Measures adopted to secure religious instruction, 292.

Comparison of the school systems of Holland and Prussia, 292.

PRUSSIA.

System of primary instruction and schools, 293.

History of the system, 293.

General organization, 294.

Primary schools of Berlin, 295.

Burgher school do 296.

Seminary school at Weissenfels, 296.

Dorothean higher city schools, 297.

City trade school of Berlin, 298.

Method of teaching in the Frank foundations at Halle, 300.

Method of teaching drawing in Royal Real school, 301.

Distribution of time in the higher burgher schools of Potsdam, 301.

Primary normal schools in Prussia, 301.

Seminary for teachers at Weissenfels, 301.

State of Prussian Education in 1838, 304.

General view of organization, 304.

Expense of the schools, 305.

Teachers' seminaries, 305.

Special schools for the deaf and dumb, and blind, &c., 305.

Public schools of Bonn, 306.

Teachers' seminary at Brühl and Neuwied, 307.

Results of the system, 308.

Statistical table, 308.

Schools of arts of Prussia, 308.

Institute of arts of Berlin, 309.

GRAND DUCHY OF BADEN.

Elementary education in Baden, 311.

GRAND DUCHY OF NASSAU.

Elementary education in Nassau, 311.

GRAND DUCHY OF HESSE.

Elementary education in Hesse, 312.

AUSTRIA.

System of education, 312.

General view of the system, 312.

Popular schools, 313.

Inspection, 313.

Statistics, 314.

Polytechnic institute of Vienna, 314.

Austrian dominions in Italy, 315.

State of elementary education in Lombardy, 315.

Infant schools, 316.

Public schools in the Venetian States, 317.

TUSCANY.

Public instruction, 318.

Commercial school at Leghorn, 318.

Infant school for the higher classes, 318.

SWITZERLAND.

Education in the several cantons, 319.

Canton of Tessino.

School law, 319.

Canton of Soleure.

Public instruction, 319.

Canton of Neuchâtel.

History of public instruction, 319.

Canton of Zurich.

Elementary schools, 320.

Higher schools, 320.

Technical school, 320.

Normal school at Küssnacht, 320.

Canton of Basle.

Fellenberg's establishments at Hofwyl, 321.

Principles of education, 321.

School at Beuggen, 323.

BAVARIA.

Primary school system, 325.

Statistics, 325.

WURTEMBERG.

Primary school system, 325.

Statistics, 325.

Institute of agriculture, 325.

FRANKFORT-ON-THE-MAINE.

Public schools, 326.

HANOVER.

Statistics, 327.

GRAND DUCHY OF SAXE WEIMER.

Statistics, 327.

Class books in the public schools, 327.

SAXONY.

Primary instruction, 327.

Leipsic, Public schools of, 328.

Burgher schools of, 328.

RUSSIA.

Primary instruction in, 330.

DENMARK.

Statistics, 332.

NORWAY.

Statistics, 332.

SWEDEN.

School system, 332.

FRANCE.

History of public instruction, 333.

Primary school system of 1833, 333.

Opinions of Guizot, Cousin, &c., 334.

Normal school at Versailles, 334.

Ignorance and crime, 335.

BELGIUM.

Primary education in, 336.

EGYPT.

School system, 332.